When the New Roman Missal was introduced in Advent 2011, we were asked to make a profound bow at the words “by the power of the Holy Spirit, he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man.”

Note that a “profound bow” is a bow at the waist. The reason is because it is at this point when we express our belief in the most fundamental mystery of Christianity: That in Jesus Christ, God actually became man, born of a woman by the power of the Holy Spirit. This is the Incarnation, the most sacred moment in all of human history. Therefore, we bow in honor of that event. Since the Incarnation is so central to what we believe as Christians, the profound bow becomes an important way of outwardly expressing that belief.
