Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we are called to be fair and just stewards as we give ourselves in service to the Lord, and once again we are challenged also to free ourselves of any obstacles that might get in the way. In the Gospel story, wealth is the obstacle. The important point to keep in mind as Christ’s disciples is that we must be so detached from material goods that the presence or absence of wealth becomes insignificant. How we use what we have is the significant factor. We need to use our gifts – wealth or otherwise – to serve God and to reach out to those in need.
